Dear Parents,

Year 1 Marble Day- Tuesday 26th November

The children have worked extremely hard over the first term to impress the adults, not only in Year 1, but also from around the school to earn all 50 of their marbles. We earn marbles in lots of different ways by showing good teamwork, being kind to each other, impressing people as a whole class and for many other reasons. When we have collected all 50 of our class marbles, we earn ourselves a Marble Day – a day where we come away from the curriculum and celebrate by doing many fun and exciting activities chosen by the children.

After plenty of discussion, the children have decided they would like to have a fun filled, pyjama themed day!

The children would like to:

- Dress up in cosy pyjamas
- Roast marshmallows on the fire pit
- Enjoy a film and design our own pyjamas
- Decorate rich-tea biscuits

For Marble Day, please ensure that school has the most up to date information regarding allergies. Ingredients for our biscuit decorating and marshmallow roasting will include:

- Rich tea biscuits
- Icing sugar
- Marshmallows, sweets and sprinkles (please note all sweets and marshmallows will be vegetarian and halal).

We are so looking forward to our next Marble Day with 1KW and 1ED, they more than deserve it and it will be a perfect way for us to celebrate another fantastic half term in Year 1!

Regards

The Year 1 Team
