Re: Y5 Jorvik Viking Workshops, 25.2.25

Dear Parents and Guardians,

As part of their studies into the Viking invasions of Britain, our Y5 children will have an exciting opportunity to engage with professional archaeologists and historians from the world-famous Jorvik Viking Centre in York in a series of interactive, online sessions which will introduce the children to the topic.

Taking place on Tuesday 25th February, the children will take part in 2 workshops which will help the children immerse themselves in the world of the Vikings, and help them to address their overarching inquiry, 'How should the Vikings be remembered?' In their first workshop, 'Warriors and Raiding', the children will learn about Viking raids on Britain, and how they earned their fierce reputations; in the second, 'Settlers and Trade', they will learn about how the Vikings settled in Britain, and what legacy they left this island nation.

These workshops incur a cost of £5.55, which is to be paid via ParentPay, by Friday 24th January. Please note, these are online interactive sessions and will take place during the school day.

Key Details:

What: Jorvik Viking Interactive Sessions

When: Tuesday 25th February, during the school day

Cost: £5.55, via ParentPay

We're looking forward to getting stuck into our Vikings topic! In the meantime, don't forget to check out the enrichment document in the Curriculum Support folder on Showbie, where children can begin learning about the Vikings through different video and reading materials.

Kind regards

The Y5 Team
