Dear Parents,

As part of our ongoing History topic on Lancaster 'Then and Now', we are excited to announce a visit from the High Sheriff of Lancaster, Helen Bingley, on Monday 3rd February and a trip to Lancaster Castle on Thursday 6th February. This visit will provide the children with a valuable opportunity to explore the features of a real castle and connect what they've been learning in class to a hands-on experience.

During our visit, we will:

- Walk to and around the castle, observing its external features.
- Explore the castle courtyard and learn about its historical significance.
- Visit the Police Museum, enjoy an interactive talk and activities here.

The trip is free of charge as we will not be entering the castle itself.

Key Information:

- Date: Thursday 6th February
- Time: Departing school at 9:15 am and returning by approximately 1:00 pm.
- What to Bring:
 - A waterproof coat.
 - Suitable footwear, such as trainers or walking shoes.
 - Packed Lunch (Unless you are happy for your child to be provided with a packed lunch from school).
- The children will have lunch in the lunch room at the Police Museum.
- Please also ensure that your child wears their full school uniform.

Kind regards,

The Year 1 Team
