Y6 Slave Trade Trail

Dear Parents/ Carers,

In the second half of Spring Term, Y6 will be studying the Transatlantic Slave Trade as part of their learning in history, including how Lancaster was heavily involved in the trade and its lasting impacts on the city.

Our children have the fantastic opportunity to attend a guided tour, led by Mr Haughton, of various sites around our city that have links to the slave trade.

Trip Details:

- Where: Various sites around Lancaster
- When: Monday 3rd March
- Times: We will depart school at 9:00am, and return for 12:00pm
- Clothing: A warm, waterproof coat is essential, as well as appropriate footwear for the walk

We look forward to our trip and the excellent learning opportunity it presents our children.

Kind regards
The Y6 Team
